

By His Wounds, We Are Healed.

“and He Himself brought our sins in His body up on the cross, so that we might die to sin and live for righteousness; by His wounds you were healed.”

—1 Peter 2:24

“For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

—Mark 10:45

“By this the love of God was revealed in us, that God has sent His only Son into the world so that we may live through Him. In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins.”

—1 John 4:9-10

“Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we also have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we celebrate in hope of the glory of God.”

—Romans 5:1-2

“I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd lays down His life for the sheep.”

—John 10:11

“In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our wrongdoings, according to the riches of His grace which He lavished on us. In all wisdom and insight.”

—Ephesians 1:7-8

“For by grace you have been saved through faith; and this is not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not a result of works, so that no one may boast.”

—Ephesians 2:8-9

“He made Him who knew no sin to be sin in our behalf, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.”

—2 Corinthians 5:21

“And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to the point of death: death on a cross.”

—Philippians 2:8
